Lost and Saved in Tasmania: 21 Reasons to Protect Peaceful Protest

Exhibition Opens: Tuesday 2 February, 5 - 7pm
Exhibition Runs: 2 - 13 February 2010

Tue to Fri: 11am – 5pm
Sat: 12pm – 4pm

This very special photographic exhibition of Tasmania's natural heritage includes works by some of Australia's best known nature photographers including Peter Dombrovskis, Olegas Truchanas, Rob Blakers, Wolfgang Glowacki and Senator Bob Brown. The images are of areas of incredible natural beauty in Tasmania; areas that have been lost, areas that have been saved and areas that are threatened.

The opening function coincides with the first day of the trial of infamous Gunns20 case. The exhibition will be opened at 6pm by Julian Burnside, QC.
